

Job Title: Community Food Internship
Start Date: November 2015
Hours: 22.5 to 37.5 hours per week (minimum 2 months)

About the position

We are looking for an enthusiastic intern who is passionate about local food and keen to gain experience in this sector. This is a voluntary, desk-based role, supporting the General Manager and the Food Distribution Co-ordinators.

We expect the intern to be hard working, highly competent with computers with good communication skills. You will be involved in supporting communications, the Veg Box scheme and event coordination.

The individual will gain experience in the community food and environmental sector and be part of an exciting social enterprise that's creating a sustainable local food system.

Expectations and arrangements

- Commitment of at least 3 days per week for an agreed period (at least 2 months);
- Travel expenses up to £10 per day can be covered for days worked;
- Lunch is provided on some work days and surplus produce available from the farm.

Sutton Community Farm - About us

We are a community-owned social enterprise with a mission to increase access to fresh, healthy, sustainable food and provide a space for the community to cultivate skills.

We are a highly motivated team, passionate to help create positive relationships between people and food. We farm with organic principles and strive to be a deeply sustainable business. We are driven by values of respect, transparency, quality and integrity.

We aim to make our Farm accessible to as wide a range of the public as possible and are committed to ensuring that everyone is treated fairly. You can find out more by reading our Equal Opportunities Policy. Please visit our website for further information: www.suttoncommunityfarm.org.uk
